The society is pleased to have Mr. Peter Tobias as our September speaker.

Peter Tobias started growing orchids in the early 1970's with a white phalaenopsis on a Chicago windowsill. His hobby really 'bloomed' after moving to Encinitas, California, a coastal town just north of San Diego, in 1980. There he became involved in the local orchid society and was a founding member of the San Diego County Orchid Society's Conservation Committee in 1991. The local success of that committee suggested that a national orchid conservation effort could be successful. The Orchid Conservation Alliance was incorporated by Tobias and three friends in 2006 with the primary goal of fostering development of orchid reserves. The talk will focus on the activities of the Alliance, showing pictures from orchid reserves and the trips that the Alliance sponsors to see orchids in the wild. For his day job, Tobias is an Associate Professor of Immunology at The Scripps Research Institute in La Jolla, California.

The Huntington Library and Botanical Gardens is hosting the first International Orchid Show beginning on Friday, October 16-18, 2015. The theme for this year is "Beautiful Orchids". The RSBCOS has committed to being a part of this event and your help is needed. At the meeting will be a sign up sheet for volunteers to send into Brandon Tam, the coordinator of this year's event. Volunteers are needed for the plant hotel, host/hostess and judging. Members who volunteer for these duties will get "FREE" entrance to the Huntington. There is a special dinner on Thursday night that is wonderful and the winners are announced. Plant registration slips will be available at the meeting for you to take as I'm sure many of you have outstanding orchid plants you would like to have in the society display and to be judged. We have always done very well winning several trophies in past years plus 100's of ribbons for our efforts. Tom Gibbs is the man in charge so if you have questions, please direct to him and they will get answered. Hopefully Joe Kles will have his awesome Stanhopea in bloom for the display and Jamie Stewart with his winning Candy Stripe!!!!

August Show-N-Tell Winners

Have you gotten your new roster yet?? If not, see Tanya Cupino at the meeting to get the latest roster.

All the names, addresses and phone numbers so that you can call your orchid friends.

A big thank you to Ron Lang for filling in for Nessa Rosenbaum who is recovering from recent surgery.

And a big thank you to Karl Trisler for announcing all the winners of the Show-N-Tell. Good job guys!!

Our speaker for August: Ron
 Kaufmann

Our society really needs to have a presence at the first International Orchid show hosted by The Huntington Library and Botanical Gardens. This cannot be achieved without the volunteers. If you can volunteer some time and effort, we'd really like to have your help. Please let Tom Gibbs know you are available. Transporting the orchids to and fro is the biggest obstacle of the show for us. Bob Laughlin has agreed to design the display, Gene and Sandy will house the orchids and get them ready for travel on Wednesday morning. We also need volunteers to come on Sunday afternoon to help take down the display and bring back. Those of you with plants to be entered, please bring to the Collins house on Tuesday morning with the name of the plant as well as your name on the bottom of the pot. More info coming.

Remember:

Support your local orchid growers and tell them you are a member of the Riverside-San Bernardino Counties Orchid Society. Who knows...you may receive a discount!
