Please join us for a night of tropical fun and flowers.

As usual, the Society will provide the main dishes and beverages, so plan on bringing a side dish to share with 8-10 for all to enjoy.

Please remember to bring your own dinner service and special beverage, if you desire.

Renowned author

Dr. Joseph Arditti

Will be speaking on 'Orchids in Novels'.

Once again the Professor of Biology Emeritus will bring his passion of orchids and USC to our Society.

Always very insightful, often hilarious, Dr. Arditti's presentations are not to be missed.

He is the founding editor of Orchid Biology, Reviews and Perspectives and has written several well known books on orchids as well as devoting a lifetime of study to orchids.
